Former Texas Death Row Inmate Anthony Graves to File a Grievance against Former Burleson County District Attorney Charles Sebesta.

HOUSTON- After 18 years of incarceration, 12 of which were on death row, Anthony Graves will file a grievance against former District Attorney Charles Sebesta. To this date, Sebesta has not been held accountable by the State Bar of Texas for his wrongful prosecution and his violation of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct.

The recent passage of Senator John Whitmire's Texas Senate Bill 825 allows a grievance against a prosecutor to be filed within four (4) years after a wrongfully imprisoned person is released. Graves was released on October 27, 2010.

Those attending the event include: Neal Manne of Susman Godfrey LLP, Senator Rodney Ellis, Senator John Whitmire, State Representative Senfonia Thompson and Kathryn Kase of Texas Defender Services.

Please join us on Monday January 20, 2014, 3:00 pm at the MLK Humanities Center, Texas Southern University's Campus, 3100 Cleburne St. Houston, TX 77004.
