

IN THE CHANCERY COURT OF TENNESSEE
FOR THE THIRTIETH JUDICIAL DISTRICT AT NASHVILLE

SARAH SUSAN SHIPMAN

PARKER, Plaintiff,

vs.

DOCKET NO. CH-01-23456

TIMOTHY RANDALL PARKER,

PART I

Defendant.

FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS CAUSE, came on to be heard the 25th day of April, 2011 before Chancellor Walter L. Evans, Chancellor of Part I, of the Chancery Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the Complaint for Absolute Divorce filed by Plaintiff, having waiver of service by Defendant and written Marital Dissolution Agreement entered into by the parties, and Plaintiff represented by counsel and upon the testimony of Plaintiff and statements of counsel for Plaintiff and the entire record in this cause from all of which it appears to the court and the court finds as follows:

The court has jurisdiction in all necessary particulars of this case, and the facts alleged in the complaint are true and correct as to the necessary elements of an irreconcilable differences divorce.

The differences between the parties have become irreconcilable, the parties are now living separate and apart, there is no chance for reconciliation, and a divorce should be granted to the parties on the ground of irreconcilable differences.

The parties hereto have entered into a written Marital Dissolution Agreement which the Court affirmatively finds makes adequate and sufficient provisions for the custody, support and maintenance of the children of this marriage and for the equitable settlement of any property rights between the parties, and that said Agreement should be made a part of this order by reference as if copied in full herein.

The Child Support Guidelines have been complied with in this case.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the Plaintiff, Sarah Susan Shipman Parker, have and is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the Defendant, Timothy Randall Parker, and the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby held for naught and the parties are hereby restored to all the rights and privileges of unmarried persons.

The parties have entered into a written Marital Dissolution Agreement which the court finds to be a just and equitable settlement of the property rights of the parties, makes adequate and sufficient provisions for the custody, support and maintenance of the children of this marriage, and that said Agreement is made a part of this order by reference as if copied in full herein, and each party is ordered to abide by the terms thereof.

Wife shall be Primary Residential Parent to the parties' minor children, Sally Sandra Parker and Shelton Sanders Parker. Child support is to be paid by Husband as set out in the Marital Dissolution Agreement. Husband shall have reasonable visitation rights as set out in the Marital Dissolution Agreement.

Each party is ordered to obey the terms of the Marital Dissolution Agreement, as it is an Order of this court.

Each party is ordered to take all steps necessary to carry out the terms of the Marital Dissolution Agreement, including but not limited to the execution of documents.

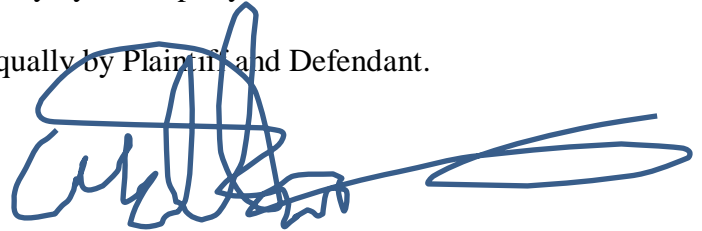

The parties' healthcare needs shall be addressed in accordance with the terms of the Marital Dissolution Agreement.

Each party shall maintain the property in his or her possession.

This cause is retained in the court for the enforcement of this Decree and the issuance of such future Orders that may be necessary.

Upon motion of Dewey Cheetham, he is relieved of any further responsibility as counsel of record for the purpose of service if after thirty (30) days from the entry of this Decree there has been no appeal or other activity by either party in this cause.

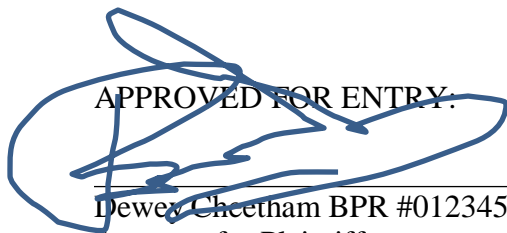

The cost of this cause will be borne equally by Plaintiff and Defendant.
