

On behalf of the Irish-American community throughout New England,
The Boston Irish Reporter newspaper is pleased to congratulate our friend

John Philip Foley

of Foley Law Offices

on being selected to the Irish Legal 100.

John has worked tirelessly for peace and justice in Northern Ireland, and has provided legal services to a number of Irish-American organizations.
Over his twenty year legal career, he has helped thousands seeking U.S. immigration benefits and trying to build a better life in America.
